OWNER'S PURPOSE PROJECT EXPLANATION

The Owners Purpose Project is a deflationary utility token developed on the Binance Smart Chain with auto weekly Bonuses for holders. Owners Purpose works inside an organic engineering platform specifically created for project owners, devs, team development, holders, and our partners.

Owners Purpose functions as a revolutionary virtual-aided platform for holders to effortlessly produce new cryptocurrency initiatives, use-cases, business proposals, designs for contracts, and much more.

The main dev and owner for the Owners Purpose project is C. A Fenderson, better known as Chazzy. C. A is a metaphysician, SEO copywriter, and entrepreneur with over 3 years of cryptocurrency trading expertise.

Ash is the second dev supplying the contract and serves as the company CFO. The co-dev, which the project is pioneered from, is Ash.

However, the Owners Purpose project is a separate token and not a v2 of any previously generated tokens, either its founders or members of the ICO.

Digital Currency In 2022

The structures we confront in digital currency and investing generally are collective communities attempting to locate decent and reliable projects on verifiable and legit platforms.

In the trading business, individual project owners with use-cases increase the interaction for consumers and developers, by providing secure cryptocurrency services and options with peace of mind.

The cryptocurrency industry survives on speculation-based profits. To profit, cryptocurrency investors place bets on whether the price of Bitcoin will rise or fall. This produces a sharp rise or fall in the price of Bitcoin, resulting in volatility.

In recent months the market is impacted by financial institutions, legislations, and so forth leading to liquidation periods and bearish trading.

The problem with trading in these situations is that new ICOs and IDOs often do not stand a chance at predicting marketing outcomes, prelaunch phases, investors participation, and to some extent setting up private and or public sales.

The bigger issue approaches during the marketing stages where many project owners are competing for the same audience of popular platforms.

The OPP Token addresses these issues by employing professional guerilla marketing strategies taught by a prominent SEO certified specialist.

The OPP token platform is meant to attract our target consumers by utilizing cutting-edge software analytics tools and highly recognized search engine optimized strategy forecasts.

WEEKLY BNB BONUSES

We can emphasize the importance of holding at least one wallet with $200 worth of OPP TOKEN in it.

Holders can reinvest a portion of their BNB in the OPP token.

The contract is designed to pay out the BNB bonus to all holders who do not sell within a 7-day cycle period.

Because holders are not required to sell their positions, they will always get the incentive.

Anyone with several wallets can sell them at any moment. As a result, people can trade, reinvest, or save for services in this manner.

We will audit our contract, and our developers will update it if needed.

We will run promotions to increase purchasing pressure, but these announcements will be sent out sooner via email subscriptions.

I am now pursuing a Masters degree in Metaphysical Sciences and have a B.A. in Divinity. In addition, I provide neuro-linguistic and spiritual coaching.
